

All things Lettered

TABLE TOP COMPETITION

Individuals and Guilds are invited to participate in the first ever IAMPETH
"All Things Lettered" Table Top Competition Saturday, July 18, 2009, 4 p.m.
Holiday Inn on Broadway, Nashville, Tennessee

Premise: Incorporate lettering into an exquisitely decorated table top

Ideas:

placecards* (fictitious or actual names)
table number or marker (fictitious) menus* (fictitious) decorative items for chairs, table tops.
centerpieces

The tables will be judged prior to the IAMPETH final night banquet and then will actually be used at the banquet.

We'll provide the basics: white tablecloths, plates, stemware, cutlery, napkins, but if you would like to use your own items, you may (at slight risk, of course). Flying to the convention? Lay those paper products flat and let us know if there is anything you need after you arrive in Nashville.

The tables to be used are round and should be set for 8 people.
All un-decorating must be done immediately following the banquet.

Judging:

Two Divisions:

Individual
Guild

Each division has an opportunity to win a fabulous prize package and as well as the title:
IAMPETH All Things Lettered Grand Champion

Questions or to reserve one of twelve tables, email Janie Cravens at iampeth@gmail.com or call 706-831-3196.

All things Lettered

TABLE TOP COMPETITION

Official Entry Form

Name of Guild or Individual _____

City _____ State _____

Contact Person _____ phone _____

Email address _____

Estimated Number of persons participating _____

Theme (wedding, birthday, anniversary, Valentine's, etc.) _____

IAMPETH is hosting this competition as a way to showcase the creativity and talents of its membership. Participants should enjoy this event and not take it so seriously that feelings get hurt or tantrums are thrown. Decisions of the judges are final.

