

Brownfield

Since taking a course in the Zanerian, Mr. Brownfield has been making very rapid progress as a penman and teacher. His testimonial herewith in ornamental script, and his specimen of business writing, rank high in the scale of professional penmanship. Mr. Brownfield now has full charge of the Penmanship Department in the Bowling Green, Ky., Business University and has a very bright future.

Upwards of seventeen hundred students have entered the Zanerian College since it opened its doors in 1888, and the attendance gains a little year by year,

No effort has ever been made to make the Zanerian College a large school. However, an unusual amount of effort has been made to make it a school of quality.
