

LM Kelchner commenting on the death of his cousin CP Zaner. Taken from The Business Educator tribute to Zaner dated February 1919. This one is for Michael Sull.

Joe Vitolo

-----

I mourn the loss of a dear cousin, whose memory I shall always cherish. He was foursquare with the world and the world is better and richer for his having lived in it. The penmanship profession loses a leader, who by his wisdom and deeds for a quarter of a century has done more for the advancement and betterment of the art of writing than any other person in my judgment America has ever known.

L. M. Kelchner, Seattle, Wash.