

Taken from The Educator, February 1941

Paula Loya Studio Announcement

GENERAL PENMANSHIP STUDIO

Pauline Loya, who is conducting a Studio in Boston, Massachusetts, with the aid of her sister, reports that their Studio is doing a very nice volume of business.

She was recently assigned to a job of cleaning and restoring an old sheepskin document.

The Studio, she says, is not only an engrossing studio but a handy one as well. They do all classes of artwork.

Miss Loya attended the Zanerian College where she received her penmanship and engrossing training.