

Ornamental Penmanship by H J Ennis, 2315 NE 40th Avenue, Portland Oregon. Ennis was born in 1877 and attended the Zanerian College of Penmanship, Columbus, Ohio.. He went back to Portland and taught in the public school system.

Charles E Doner. Mr. Doner was born in 1875 in Plainfield, Pennsylvania. In 1893 he went to the Zanerian College of Penmanship, Columbus, Ohio and spent three years at the school as a student and as a teacher. He eventually became a penmanship teacher in the Beverly, Massachusetts school system until his death.

E C Enriquez, Manila, Philipines. Mr. Enriquez was born 1907 in Quiapo, Manila, he took lessons by mail from F W Tamblyn of Kansas City, Missouri from lessons advertised in Popular Mechanics, he died in 1952 in the Philippines at age 44, tragically.

Myra Cullen Boland studied engrossing and penmanship with W. C. Henning and later at the Zanerian School. She went on to become one of three calligraphers (I suppose there were more than one at any one time, at least in more modern times), probably circa 1950's-1970's (I'm guessing).

Swank worked for the Treasury Department...did he also work as White House calligrapher?

from F J Duffy who taught at the Duluth, Minnesota Public Schools. Mr. Duffy attended the Zanerian College of Penmanship, Columbus, Ohio.

Carl Oscar Ellefson, Duluth Business College, Duluth, Minnesota.

M B Moore, Morgan, Kentucky. I have never had originals by Mr Moore and have found these samples in a package of other items. Mr. Moore was born in 1867 and died January 14, 1922 in Falmouth, Kentucky.

M C Leipholz, I think of the Philadelphia, Pa area. Mr. Leipholz attended the Zanerian College of Penmanship in Columbus, Ohio and sent these items to Earl A Lupfer his teacher: 4 items of ornamental penmanship; 4 more items of ornamental penmanship, an 8 1/2 X 11 letter to Mr, Lupfer reciting in poetic form his knowledge and admiration of C P Zaner, the school and Mr. Lupfer.

J E Lester of Wapella and Vandalia, Illinois. Items include: page dated 1946, envelope dated 1946, envelope dated 1947, other items were enclosed in the various envelopes.

Items of original and printed samples of ornamental penmanship by Clyde C Lister, Maxwell Training School, Brooklyn, New York. Items include original business writing sample, 1906, 5 X 12 inches; original ornamental alphabet, 1906, 5 X 12 inches; 7 original envelopes dated 1925-1929 in fantastic business penmanship; about 20 pages of cuts from penmanship magazines of lessons prepared by Lister for publication in Zaner and Blosler magazines Fredrick W Martin, Martin Diploma Co., Boston, Massachusetts. Mr. Martin was one of the perfectionists in copperplate style penmanship, then called engrosser's script.
